

Community Organisation Study Award 2018

Background

The Bay of Plenty Community Organisation Study Awards are intended for adult learners (18+ years of age) currently working in a not-for-profit organisation either full or part-time. The community organisation will nominate a staff member for the award (one award per organisation).

In all cases, the award will be pending the individual meeting the programme entry criteria and being accepted on to their intended study programme.

Value

Two awards of $500 to assist with payment of programme fees, available per year.

Eligibility

The scholarships are open to adults (18+ years) who are currently working in a not-for-profit organisation either full or part-time and nominated by the community organisation. This award is open to New Zealand citizens and permanent residents only who are enrolling in a Toi Ohomai Institute of Technology full-time programme.

Criteria

Applicants must provide evidence to demonstrate a focused intention to succeed within their chosen subject area.

The applicant must meet entry criteria for their programme of choice.

Consideration will also be given to the applicant's personal and financial circumstances.

Closing Date

The final date for applications will be Friday, 19 January 2018.
