TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR APPLYING TO STUDY AT TOI OHOMAI

- If your Application is accepted you will receive a Letter of Offer for the programme of study you have requested.
- An interview may be required during the application/enrolment process.
- You must have access to sufficient funds (no less than $15,000 per year) to support yourself while you are living and studying in New Zealand.
- To accept a place you must forward the full payment of fees outlined in the Letter of Offer.
- Payment can be transmitted in New Zealand dollars to Toi Ohomai's bank account as stated in the Letter of Offer.
- If the information you provide in this Application is incorrect in any significant way, Toi Ohomai reserves the right to terminate your enrolment on the programme of study.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT REFUND – ALL APPLICATIONS FOR REFUNDS MUST BE IN WRITING

The refund of application and enrolment fees, if applicable, is determined by the following:

If you have accepted a place at Toi Ohomai and have an approval in principle of a visa which is then declined by Immigration New Zealand, you will be entitled to a full refund of fees paid, however, you will be charged an administration fee of $500.

- If you have accepted a place at Toi Ohomai, have paid your fees and have been issued a visa, and then if you withdraw during the month before the programme start date, you may be entitled to a refund of 70% of the fees paid less any taxes and other costs incurred, and you will be charged an administration fee of $500. A refund will be made only after consideration by Toi Ohomai of your individual situation and reason for withdrawal.
- If you withdraw less than one month before the programme start date, or after the programme has started, you will not be entitled to a refund of fees paid except in exceptional mitigating circumstances, and at the discretion of Toi Ohomai, then a refund of up to 70% of fees paid, less any taxes and other costs incurred, may be given. You will be charged an administration fee of $500. Toi Ohomai requires documentary evidence to support the case for exceptional mitigating circumstances, e.g. a medical condition evidenced by a recommendation from a hospital/specialist that states you are unable to continue or return within a reasonable timeframe (NOTE: statements from a general practitioner will not be considered adequate evidence).
- The date of withdrawal is the date you complete, sign and submit your Withdrawal Form to Toi Ohomai, not the last day you attend class. You will find the Refund Policy on our website. Look for "Toi Ohomai Regulations" under the About Us tab. You will find the International Student Withdrawals and Transfer Fees Schedule, as well as the Student Code of Conduct, and other important documents. Please contact us if you have any questions on this policy. <https://toiohomai.ac.nz/toi-ohomai-regulations>
